

Klove's music gives me a great outlook every day when I got to work with the kids in my youth group, and it gives them other types of music to hear. If replaced it would take away great music that any age can listen to. It gives unbiased news and look at what things different churches in the state have to offer in concerts, seminars that are of interest to every one.
that information would no longer be there if KLOVE was gone.